Dear Miss Bradford,

A kind artist, a little paste, a bunch of paper & I had been given us, and for less than the cost of the paper we sported a letterhead!

I've been meaning to thank you for the useful diary and the day book, both of which I'm using. There have been changes in our lives. I find I have to keep a record of my advance appointments. I also find that it is not enough to use a calendar, for I have to keep them with me (thus the use for the day book). Now, I find I've got too much in my pockets and not enough. I'd been using a small leather looseleaf book for both phones and addresses when I'm out of town and for notes. I've gotta split that. All the cost of success.

For the first time I'm going to be doing several college, radio and TV appearances in New England this week. On Feb. 6, I'll be at WMAQ, Boston probably all day the 8th, taping, and at Burlington, Vt., at the univ. but probably no broadcast, the 9th.

The Dell reprint seems to be doing very well.

Belatedly, thanks for your useful gifts.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

I thought these might come in handy for note-taking, etc.
